Tom Evans

Speaks Monday To Teachers

Second speaker in a series on "Drug Abuse" was Tom Evans, pharmacist, who addressed county school teachers Monday afternoon as part of an in-service training session on "Drug Abuse." Mr. Evans pointed out that many "worthwhile" drugs can be misused by a patient and result in bad effects. He described as "quite a shocker" a taped interview which State Police Investigator Reid Shields played for the teachers. The tape is an interview with a young man under the effects of LSD, who shortly after the taping committed suicide. Mr. Evans is a graduate of Medical College of Va., a Division of Va. Commonwealth University, and is associated with REVCO Corporation, in Lynchburg.

Nutrition Forum Set For Oct. 27

Submitted by Mrs. R. K. Martin

"Who makes your Buying Decisions" is the title of the Fifth Regional Nutrition Forum, which will be held Tuesday, Oct. 27th at Holiday Inn, North, Lynchburg.

The Forum, like those in the past, is being sponsored by the State Women's Committee, of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation and the Nutrition Committee of the Virginia Council on Health and Medical Care. Both organizations have a great interest in helping to provide the public with factural and current information on nutrition and the importance of nutrition as it relates to good health and preventice medicine.

The forum is open to the public and registration will begin at 9:30 a.m.

The first major address will be given by Miss Joanne Barton, Extention Specialist, Food and Nurition, Cooperative Extention Service, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and State University, who will discuss "Food Industry", and show a film "Behind these Doors."

Miss Gaynell Hogan, Extention Specialist, Consumer Education, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University will discuss "You."

Miss Barton and Miss Hogan will present a skit entitled "Your Family."

The speakers will be introduced by Mrs. R. K. Martin of Pamplin State Women's Committee, Virginia Farm Bureau Federation, and chairman of the Lynchburg Area Nutrition Planning Committee. Mrs. John W. Hix, chairman, Appomattox County Women's Committee, V. F.B.F., will lead the pledge of Allegiance, and the Rev. Haywood Robinson, pastor of Diamond Hill Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

A panel composed of the speakers will conclude the forum.

Rubella Vaccine Given To 280 Child

IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of Early A. Franklin, who departed this life, October 22, 1969.

There are memories of our lives together,
Those bright and happy days,
There are memories of your wisdom
And your understanding ways.

There are memories of your kindness,
Of your warm and tender touch.
Your sweet and gentle nature,
That we loved so very much.

It was God's will for you to go,
God wanted only the best,
So He called you to be with him,
Forever in the land of rest.

Sadly missed by his wife, children and grandchildren.
